

Hearing Loss Association of America

Salt Lake City Chapter

The HLAA Salt Lake City chapter is having the next meeting on September 19th from 9:00-11:00 am at the Sanderson Community Center, classroom B/C. HLAA is dedicated to the well-being of people of all ages who do not hear well, with focus on education, advocacy and self-help.

The topic this month: How We Can Improve our Relationship with Law Enforcement as Deaf and Hard of Hearing citizens. Aaron Rosen will be speaking and taking questions from our audience. He currently works for the Bluffdale City Police Precinct. He is in his 16th year of Law Enforcement. He serves as a Training Coordinator, and School Resource Officer; in addition to his normal patrol and investigative duties. Aaron is the agency's Crisis Intervention Team Coordinator and SWAT Team Negotiator. He has worked with the Utah Deaf community since he began his career, and has even worked as the Law Enforcement Liaison for the World Deaflympics Games in SLC (2007). He is developing an ASL curriculum for police training, and is preparing to travel to teach this program, in order to raise awareness regarding police/deaf interaction. He lives in South Jordan, with his son, Jordan. His girlfriend, Julie McCleave is also a staff member of the SCCDHH.

Detective Aaron Rosen
